

Biography

Barbara Glazar (born. 1975) and Ryan James (born. 1977) are an artist duo, referred to as Glazar James. Glazar and James began collaborating in 2009 producing works that are meticulously executed, and independently presented. They have most recently completed a series of circular paintings (2014); intimate flower portraits set against a pure white background. They have since explored this distinctive approach – which brings the subject out of their context and reveals the exquisite gradations of colour and variations of form. Glazar James works has recently garnered attention among collectors worldwide. Presently, they live and work in Zurich, Switzerland.
