

Dear 2050

HUMANS RESPOND TO CLIMATE CHANGE

<https://dear2050.org/>

24 October - 6 November 2020
ST. ANNA-CHAPEL IN DOWNTOWN ZURICH
A Science and Art Exhibition on the Human Responses to Climate Change

PROGRAM

Exhibition : Every day 10am – 22pm

Vernissage : 24 October 2020

Plenaries : 25, 29, 30, 31 Oct & 1, 5 November

Closing Night and Slam Presentations : 6 Nov

*The chapel allows up to 100 visitors simultaneously.
The exhibition will be available online in real time.*

SPEAKERS

Diane Burko, Painter

Chantal Bilodeau, The Arctic Cycle

Marcel Bernet, Sculptor

Fernando Aranda, Painter

Paribesh Pradhan, The Great Himalaya Trail

Friederike Rass, Project Lead St. Anna Forum

Jason Box, Geological Survey Denmark

Irmí Seidl, ETHZ and WSL

Kathleen A. Mar, IASS Potsdam

Thomas Stocker, Uni Bern

Tero Mustonen, Snowchange Cooperative

Kevin Ossah, OJEDD International

Oladosu Adenike, I Lead Climate

Friederike Otto, Climate Research Programme

Charlotte Grossiord, WSL

Matthew Skjonsberg, ETHZ

Jakob Winkler, Illustrator

Tero Mustonen
Kathleen A. Mar
Jessica Love-Nichols
Samantha Chisholm-Hatfield
Rusi Jaspal & Brigitte Nerlich

The exhibition will present original works from international scientists and artists on the human responses to climate change, featuring public-contributed slams sharing literacy in climate science, plenaries featuring keynote speeches from scientists and artists discussing the science of climate change and views on possible futures.

Jon Pardo
Sige Nagels
Lydia Moyer
Chris Wilmott
Fernando Aranda
Stefan Diller & Andreas Greiner
Kaspar König & Lydia Zimmermann

